Himmelman Construction Receives Industry Honors from American Subcontractors Association of Colorado

May 4, 2016 8:20 AM Mountain Daylight Time

LAKEWOOD, Colorado -- Himmelman Construction, Inc. (Himmelman), a privately held commercial construction management/general contractor headquartered in Lakewood, Colorado, was recently honored with two awards of distinction by the American Subcontractors Association of Colorado (ASAC) at their 31st Annual Construction Industry and Excellence in Safety Awards Gala, Saturday, April 30. First awarded was the 2016 General Contractor of the Year. Having won this honor for the fifth time in the past decade, Himmelman is a Hall of Fame recipient in the category of $10 to $50 million.

Himmelman was also recognized for their exemplary safety practices with the 2016 Excellence in Safety award within the category of 50,000 or less man hours. This award is given exclusively to a General Contractor promoting and incorporating a culture of safety first and foremost for and by their employees and subcontractors.

“To receive these awards from an organization such as ASAC that does such great work within the construction industry, is truly an honor,” said Barry Himmelman, Principal and President. “As a third generation, family-owned General Contractor, these honors are shared with family and colleagues who have paved the way, shown great loyalty, and built innumerable noteworthy facilities over the years with safety as a first priority. We are humbled by these recognitions and look forward to continuing to set the standard for safety and craftsmanship as well as honest and reputable business practices within our industry in the State of Colorado,” Himmelman added.

ASAC is the leading association fostering a collaborative business environment in the construction industry. Membership includes professional constructors, suppliers, and service providers who work together to enhance and raise the standards in the industry. Additionally, ASAC promotes ethical and equitable business practices to bring positive change throughout the construction industry.

Founded in 1955, Himmelman is a full-service construction management and contracting firm, providing a wide range of preconstruction and construction services to owners and developers across the State of Colorado.
